

FLATHEAD AUDUBON SOCIETY

Application for Nature Education Scholarships

For classes that focus on natural history, environmental science or conservation issues.

Criteria for applicant:

- Children and adults may apply
- resident of northwestern Montana;
- need not be a member of Flathead Audubon (though preference may be given to Audubon members);
- financial need.

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

If you are a student or teacher:

School attended/teaching at in school year 2001-2002 _____ Grade _____

Flathead Audubon member? (If youth, is anyone in your family a member?) Yes No

Name of class to be attended _____

Institution offering class _____

Dates of class _____ Cost of class _____

Unless very special circumstances are noted, awards will made for only part (generally about half) of the cost of the class.

Amount requested from Flathead Audubon _____

Can you attend this class without a Flathead Audubon Scholarship? Yes No

If applicant is a youth, please provide the name and phone number of a parent, teacher or mentor who has expressed willingness to provide a short verbal recommendation of your abilities and interest in topics of class.

Note: This application is for both adults and kids. Therefore, parents and other sponsors of a younger student can help them to briefly fill out questions, helping us to get a sense of why this young person would be a good candidate for a scholarship.

Name of Teacher , Mentor, or Parent who will sponsor young applicant :

Relation of Recommender to Applicant (e.g. Science Teacher, Parent, Pastor, Big Brother/Sister):

Phone number of Supporter _____

Describe in a 1-2 sentences why you are interested in this class and what you hope to gain from participating in it. Why would you be a good candidate for this scholarship?

Adults only- Describe in 1-2 sentences any educational background, or other experiences that you feel prepare you for taking this class, or how you will apply what you have learned.

Scholarship recipients will be requested to send Flathead Audubon either a thank you letter (from younger recipients), or a short evaluation of the class they attended, describing what they gained personally from their participation.

For further information, call

FAS Education Committee Chair,

Applications will be reviewed and awarded in the order they are received.

Mail application to: Flathead Audubon Scholarship Program, PO Box 9173, Kalispell, MT 59904

=====

For Flathead Audubon Use:

Approved by _____ Date _____

Amount Awarded _____ Date _____

Thank you letter/ evaluation Received _____ Date _____